DEDICATION TO THE VICAR OF CHRIST HIS HOLINESS, POPE PAUL VI

On the occasion of the closing of the Ecumenical Council
And his recent peace mission to New York,
We, the students of St. Rose High,
Lovingly and respectfully
Dedicate our 1966 Yearbook.

He came to America as a Pilgrim of Peace,
And begged that the bitter conflict cease
Before all is lost, and it's too late,
And the world is destroyed by fear and hate.
That is the task that must be done,
Not by a few but by everyone;
Now that Vatican II has ended
The message of love to all must be extended.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to—

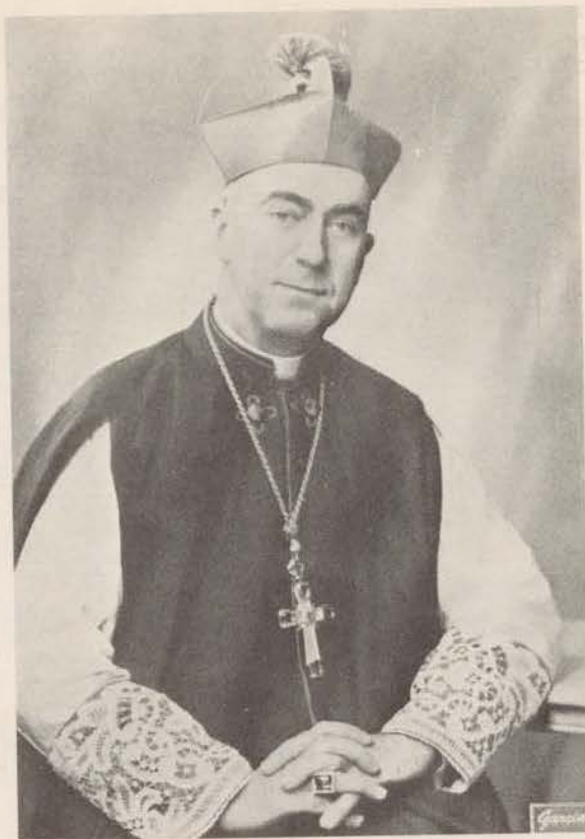

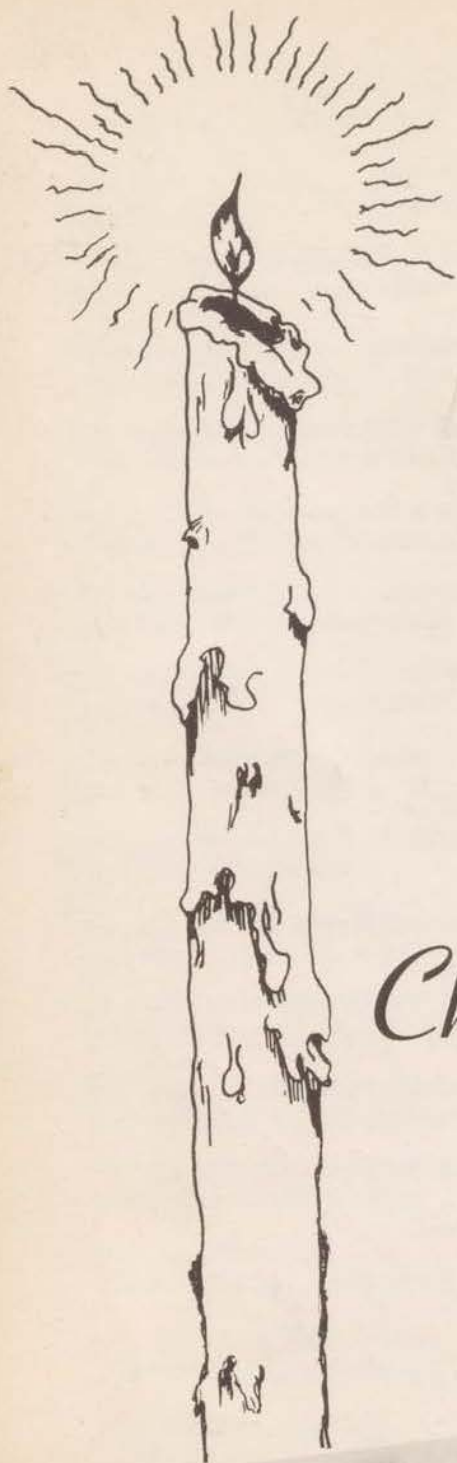

Our fatherly Pastor, and his Assistants, the Basilian Fathers, who have encouraged us and been our guides and counsellors.

Our teachers, and Sisters of the Holy Names who have dedicated their lives to God's children.

Our parents for their selfless generosity in providing a Catholic education and for their unfailing interest.

Our generous patrons and advertisers who have helped us realize this book of memories.

OUR PASTOR'S MESSAGE

During the past two years at St. Rose and St. John the Baptist Schools you have been taught to accept the REALITY OF CHRIST and the CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY. This Divine Person, Christ, became Man like one of us, lived a human experience like our own about two thousand years ago, died and IS NOW WITH US, RISEN.

The Christian Community is truly a Family Situation. It is not primarily an organization, nor is it a series of "Do's" and "Don'ts". Basically the Christian Community or The Church, is a People, THE PEOPLE OF GOD; and you are one of these people. You are identified with them, you are a member of this COMMUNITY FAMILY — You "belong".

The Church, the People of God, are your own brothers and sisters to whom you are bound in friendship and concern, and in whose questions and problems you are interested. You are Christians for the sake of others and to make the world a better place in which human beings may live and grow.

As Christians you are called to be apostolic. The foundation of the genuine apostolic mentality of Christianity is LOVE FOR OTHERS, a depth of human concern, a desire to live for others and thereby to make your own lives meaningful. Do not live in a ghetto and clutch your faith for fear of losing it. Be open to humanity, concerned about all the problems of mankind, whether these problems are in Amherstburg or in Saigon, and be dedicated with Christ to do something about it. Opportunities to live this kind of life, the genuine Christian life, to give yourself to people, you will find on every street in the world: visit the sick, take care of them, help instruct some of those who did not have the same educational opportunities as you had, coach the Pee Wee Baseball Team, join The Ambulance Squad, join the Church Choir, be a member of The Parish Council. . . . The opportunities to be concerned are as numerous as there are people.

If you experience your faith in your concern and dedication for your brothers and sisters in the community, then your life will be fully and genuinely Christian, you will be related to Christ, not in a "Christ-You" relationship, but in union with your fellow Christians. You will be united with Christ to work with Him for the transformation of the world in which men live.

My prayer for you is that you accept Christ in this manner and live with Him, in order that you and other men may live more fully.

"SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT" carried added significance this year. Not only have we as graduates come to the parting of the ways, but the doors which close behind us are not to re-open. May the chain of friendship which links us reach out to all those classes which have gone before us and extend down into the years to perpetuate the memory of our dear St. Rose High. May we live again sometimes "those scenes of old school memories."

S. R. H. SCHOOL SONG

1. A solemn peace that breathes of old school memories
Will heal the scars, the fevers of the day,
And on the breeze that gently moves across our pathway wide
Each troubled thought will idly flee away.

Refrain

So if the day has made your soul grow weary,
And brought your eyes the shadow of a frown,
Go down the trail that leads you to dear S.R.H.
And watch the clouds light up before the sun goes down.

2. We'll live again those scenes of joyful memories
We'll greet each friend who helped us on our way.
And then a light will brighten up our pathway wide.
That leads us back to dear old high school days.

October 10, 1965 will long be remembered by the students of the Senior Class of St. Rose who merited the honours of graduation.

The day began at the ten-thirty Mass, where the graduates offered the Sacrifice of the Mass for the last time as a class.

Brunch followed Mass in the graduates' old twelfth grade classroom, which was beautifully decorated for the happy occasion. The graduates sat at long tables, placed in a triangular fashion.

The afternoon festivities began at three o'clock in the afternoon. Clad in cap and gown, the graduates solemnly marched to church alongside their little attendants and the eleventh grade class. Entering the church, they proceeded to the front to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" while relatives and friends looked on with pride. Reverend J. E. Martin conferred the diplomas and the scholastic awards. The guest speaker, Reverend Leonard Thomas, Diocesan Priest of Windsor, addressed the congregation.

"Aloha" was the theme of the annual Rose Ball held on May 22nd at the Verdi Club. An intriguing Hawaiian atmosphere was created throughout the hall, highlighted by an enchanting miniature volcano. The music was provided by Mr. Gino Mancini and his orchestra.

Before the prom commenced, a coketail party was held for the graduates at the home of Miss Pat Cournoyea. Following the dance, parties were given by Miss Sandra Gravel and Miss Denise Knapp. Mr. Doug Sunderland entertained the graduates at a pre-dawn party that was enjoyed by all.

The climax of the evening came with the crowning of the Queen, Miss Judy Amlin. Last year's Queen, Miss Barbara Sutts, presented her majesty with a tiara and a dozen long-stemmed roses. Miss Amlin was escorted by Mr. Richard Sinasac. The ladies-in-waiting were Miss Denise Knapp, escorted by Mr. Bob Beethem and Miss Sandra Gravel, escorted by Mr. Jim Evon.

Student Council

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The ending of a perfect year brings back memories of that day when my fellow students elected me as President of the Student Council. Since that day I have met many people who made me proud to represent them. Many thanks are also owing to the other officers of the Student Council who provided me with the aid and encouragement I needed.

My duties as President are slowly coming to an end. Thus I wish to express sincere thanks from the student body to the Sisters of the Holy Names who provided us with a guiding hand throughout the entire year, the Basilian Fathers who gave us their invaluable counsel, the lay teachers who organized school activities in their spare time and to all the people who patronized St. Rose.

Walking down the path from St. Rose, we enter into the wide world with a timid step and a wondering mind. We must never falter; we must always keep the memory of S.R.H. proudly with us in whatever vocation we may choose.

Yearbook Staff

The publication of a yearbook requires many long and tedious hours, but despite the seemingly endless layouts, advertisements and pictures, it is a rewarding and satisfying task.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the teachers for their invaluable assistance and all those who have, in some way, contributed to the making of this seventeenth edition of the St. Rose yearbook. We hope that our annual will give you much enjoyment in the future.

Achievements

Reverend J. E. Martin, Pastor, Presiding.

The highlight of the December P.T.A. Meeting was the presentation of Letters of Standing by the Pastor, Reverend J. E. Martin, C.S.B., to the students presently in Grade XI who had completely successfully the Program of Studies of Grades 9 and 10. Students present for the occasion are: FRONT ROW: Barbara Gibb, Therese Tourangeau, BACK ROW: Linda Beadoin, Diana Bratt, Sonja Cremers, Bernadette Drouillard, Barbara Mailloux, Lynda Mayville, Sharon McGuire, Linda Owen, Sharon Pillon, Lou- Ellen Plant.

A formal ceremony just isn't complete without an informal get-together at which coke and doughnuts were enjoyed by all.

HOLY NAME MISSIONARY

VISITS OUR SCHOOL

Pictured here are the honoured representatives of the three schools conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names who presented offerings for our African Missions to Sister Ernest Armand. Seated in front: M. Ernest Armand with Sister M. Lucie-de-Jesus, Superior of St. Joseph's Academy.

ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL

The time is drawing very near,
When soon we shall no longer hear
About a weather-beaten school
Where pupils learned the golden rule.

In architecture it fails to excel,
But all, who know, are glad to tell
Of that feeling of friendship unsurpassed—
A friendship that will forever last.

We'll miss the joys we used to share,
The excitement that always filled the air;
We'll miss that closeness that we had,
The good times and the bad.

For soon this school will cease to be,
But we'll recall the festivity;
In years to come, not a day will go by
When we won't remember St. Rose High.

Anna Palumbo, Class '66

Standing: Theresa Mayville, St. Anthony's School, Vivian LeFrancois, St. John's Neil McGuire, St. John's, Dan Gibb, St. Rose, Robert Gibb, St. John's, Sharon Pillon, St. Rose, and Edward Meloche, St. Anthony's.

We had the rare treat of having Sr. Ernest Armand visit us recently. Sister Ernest returned from Basutoland, South Africa for a brief visit. Sister is a native of Windsor and taught in several schools in the immediate area until six and a half years ago, when she left to serve as a foreign missionary.

The pupils of St. Rose, St. John and St. Anthony Schools were shown movies of Sr. Ernest's many thrilling and gratifying experiences among the Africans in Basutoland. The pupils of the three schools were happy to present to Sister a substantial offering to help further the work of education and Christianization among the children attending the Holy Name Schools in Basutoland.

ATHLETIC BANQUET

How did I do it?
It was easy.

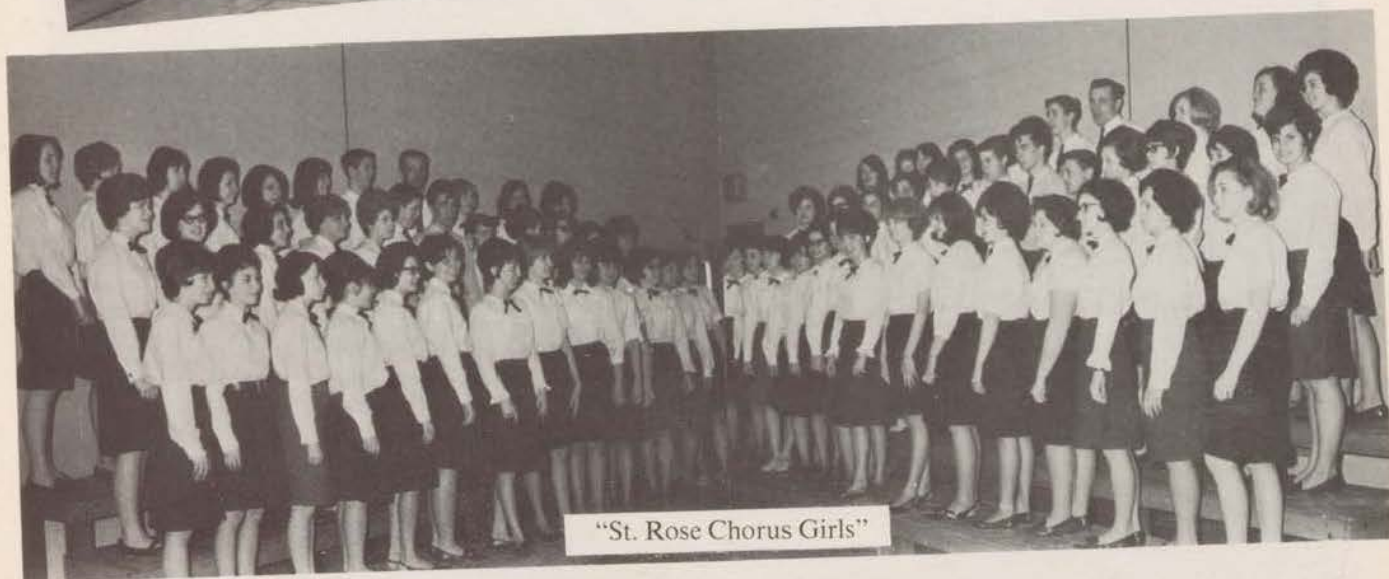

—Athletic Banquet

Last year's Athletic Banquet was an unforgettable event. The atmosphere of formality, the delicious banquet, the speeches, presentations and entertainment will remain with us for years to come.

Our Pastor, Reverend J. E. Martin, favoured us with an impressive speech and made the presentation of trophies to the track and team winners.

We considered it a rare privilege to have with us as guest speaker, Mr. John Costello of the Windsor Bulldogs. He entertained us with films depicting his trip to Moscow with the team. A band also provided dancing and fun for all.

RECORDS

During the track meet Dan Gibb broke the discus record and John Shaw broke the high jump record for our schools.

Dale Jubenville set a new scoring record with 38 points which was tied later in the season by John Shaw. During these games the basketball team set a new record then broke it. They scored 101 points against St. Anne's, then 116 points against Tilbury.

TRACK

Our track meet was held in early fall and the school winners competed in the County Meet at Kingsville. There, our boys met stiff competition but a "Congratulations" is due, especially to Dale Jubenville who represented St. Rose in the S.W.O.S.S.A. meet in London in the mile-run.

VOLLEYBALL

There was a junior boys volleyball team for the first time this year. In spite of the short notice our boys displayed excellent skills in the tournament and they placed third. Likewise our senior boys placed third with a 2-2 record. In an exhibition game with General Amherst, the seniors were also victorious.

Not that way stupid!

Look at that form!

BASKETBALL

Our junior boys placed fourth in the league standing this year. Although they were inexperienced they displayed fine skills and the future for these boys is very hopeful indeed. The captain, Marvin Shaw, led the team in scoring with 18 points a game. Following Marvin were Joe Di Nardo and Tom Burns.

Our senior boys started the season off with a bang. They won their first five exhibition games and won six out of eight in the league play. Throughout the year our team displayed excellent team work, each doing his own part which accounted for our success. As coach, Mr. Bedal did an excellent job in keeping his team together and arranging the plays. As forward, John Shaw, captain, led the team in scoring with 23 points a game. Dale Jubenville fulfilled the other forward spot with his tremendous shot, scoring 19 points a game. At center, the most important position, Dan Gibb, who did most of our rebounding, scored 14 points a game. As guards, were our fast breakers, Keith Bondy and our brilliant play-maker Doug Sunderland. Our only sub until the finals was Vince Scipione who had to fill any spot in the line up. Marvin Shaw and Joe Di Nardo of the Junior team then joined us and proved valuable substitutes.

Our seniors went into the playoffs against Kingsville as the underdogs. But with the enthusiasm of the team members and the help of two juniors, Marvin and Joe, St. Rose was victorious in the final seconds. They won a thrilling victory edging out Kingsville by one point in the final seconds. This made St. Rose E.C.S.S.A. champions, holders of the beautiful trophy. But most important it gave our boys an opportunity for further competition.

The last home game was an outstanding success. Dale Jubenville's 30-point splurge was the highlight as St. Rose breezed to the Southwestern Ontario Secondary Schools Association B senior boys' basketball championship. St. Rose whipped West Elgin District High School, 84 to 59 to take the total-points series 150-104 and gain a berth in the all-Ontario B schools tournament at Fenwick.

As our book goes to press our Senior Boys are making final arrangements for their trip to Fenwick, there to take part in the playoffs for the all-Ontario championship. We're out to win!

To Mr. Wayne Bedal, our coach, who went the limit in helping us improve, we extend a heartfelt "thank you". His brilliant "know-how" coupled with the time he gave us is responsible for our spectacular victories and success.

We wish to thank also Mr. Marvin Renaud and his spirited team of cheerleaders who supported us so admirably throughout the season.

During this 1965-66 scholastic year we had an interesting and varied schedule. First came our school field day, followed by the county meet and volleyball tournaments. The basketball games and the playoffs were the highlights of our athletic events this year. We are proud to say that our students displayed full-hearted co-operation, outstanding enthusiasm, physical endurance and fine sportsmanship.

GIRLS PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Our physical education classes this year were even more interesting than in the past. The purchase of new gymnasium equipment made possible a more varied program. We are sincere in expressing our thanks to Mrs. E. Bezaire who made this compulsory subject enjoyable as well as profitable.

TRACK

The St. Rose Track and Field meet was held in the early fall. The winners went to Windsor to meet stiffer competition. Although the girls did not emerge with any great honours, we are proud of those who participated and showed such good school spirit.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

The Juniors were successful in maintaining the title of Essex County "B" champions by defeating Harrow in the semi-finals and making them eligible for a total point two-game play-off against Lambton-Kent.

The guard line-up included Mary-Lou Pouget (co-captain), Jean Sutts, Lynne Deslippe, Vivian Lefrancois, and Diane Laing who worked successfully with Theresa Bezaire (captain), Gladys Lefrancois, Jane Sutts, Sharon Cormier, and Joan Cournoyea.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

The Senior met with strong competition this year. Defeated only twice, they emerged first in the inter-school league. In the semi-finals they were not as successful. Due to a team technicality they forfeited their first game against Harrow and lost the second game by two points.

The forwards, Diana Bratt (captain), Donna Sprague and Linda Laing, along with the guards Cathy Sutts (co-captain), Sharon Pillon, Cecile Bezaire and Linda Beau-doin displayed splendid teamwork.

The success of these teams is due in no small measure to the splendid coaching and devotedness of Miss Christine Yakovich. Thank you, Miss Yakovich, for your painstaking efforts in our behalf.

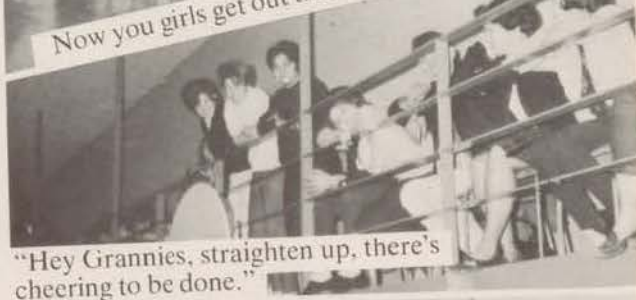

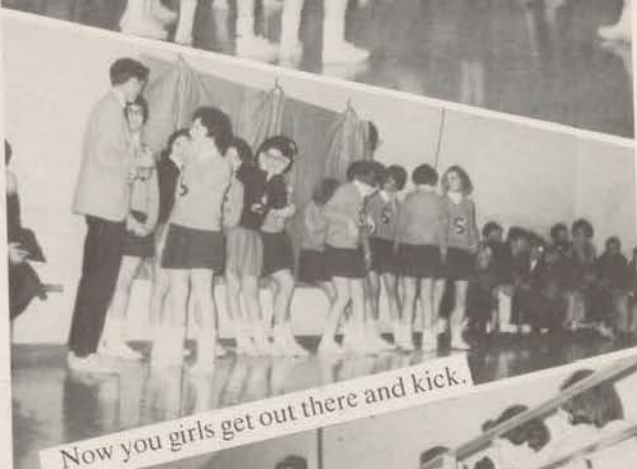

WHEN ST. ROSE PLAYS

When St. Rose plays, you're bound to see
The best team that will ever be;
In basketball, that is to say,
The other team will always pay,
While everyone looks on with glee.

We lack no cordiality
When others win a victory;
(Which is, by luck, not every day)
When St. Rose plays.

We practice always charity;
And kindness very steadily—
So even though we lose they say,
"That team wins in another way,
So losers they will never be."
When St. Rose plays.

What you would see if you happened to drop into one of our P.T. classes.

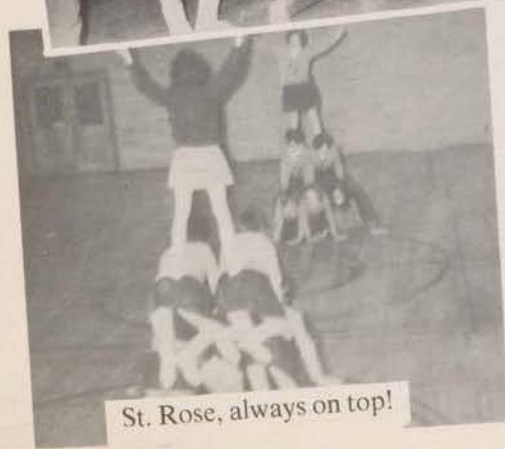

"GO, GET, TEAM, PEP" is one of the yells which spurred the St. Rose Basketball teams to victory. The enthusiastic cheers were led by the above cheerleaders: Standing: Lisa Plant, Terry Tourangeau, Betty Mailloux. Kneeling: Lou-Ellen Plant, Faunie Quinn, Diane Delmore. Sitting pow-wow style is their captain, Pat Purdie with their "Tiger" mascot and shakers.

"VICTORY, VICTORY, LET'S REPEAT IT," was one of the cries of this enthusiastic group of cheerleaders who accompanied their teams to victory. STANDING: Teresa DelDuca, Marie Bondy, Melanie Vermette. KNEELING: Mary Coyle, Barbar Gibb, Coral Mailloux. SEATED: Diane Sprague with mascot.

St. Rose, always on top!

Ex Libris

Senior Class

Dear Diary,

I have just returned from a class reunion held in the beautiful auditorium of the new St. Rose High School built in 1980. I never dreamed that when we left St. Rose twenty-five years ago, a new building of fifty classrooms would replace the old battered one.

Going up to the auditorium ahead of me was Sadie Azar who to my astonishment had not changed at all. During a short chat she told me that she was now president of a chain of Reitman's Stores and lived in Toronto with her husband and triplet sons.

A sister of the Holy Names met both of us at the door and we recognized her bright smile. It was no other than Agnes Drouillard, now Sister Sourire, who is head of the Latin department at the new St. Rose High. Also on the same teaching staff are Cecilia Capaldi and Marie Bondy, the former teaching Italian, the latter teaching P.T. after receiving her Specialist's Certificate in Physical Education. Also a credit to his Alma Mater is Doug Sunderland, a Math professor at the University of Windsor.

Upon overhearing two men talking about basketball plays, I turned around and was not surprised to see John Shaw, now playing for the "Globe Trotters" talking over old times with Danny Gibb, a prominent businessman and owner of his own construction company.

When Diane Sprague walked in, I could scarcely believe my eyes, for she was at least five feet six inches tall. She was wearing her airline stewardess uniform and could only stay long enough to say hello. Her sister Donna, she informed me, was still honeymooning in the Caribbean and was unable to attend this reunion. She and her wealthy husband had been married two months ago by Father Iacavone, C.S.B., whom I spoke to later.

Everyone was very happy to hear that Tom Gagnon had become the first mayor of McGregor and was well liked for the good he was doing in that community.

Jim White, the first astronaut from Amherstburg, left Cape Kennedy long enough to attend this class gathering before his second landing on the moon.

How nice it was to see Barbara Deslippe (nee Rebidoux) again. She is happily married and has two lovely young daughters. One of them is taking piano lessons from Marguerite Rocheleau who now has her degree in music and is one of the best music instructors around.

Although we were not expecting them to come, Commodore John Bryksa and Chief Petty Officer David Coyle of the Royal Canadian Navy arrived just as the refreshments were being served.

Unfortunately, Marie Dault was not able to be with us on this memorable occasion because of a throat operation, which could have been quite serious for she is an opera singer. But two registered nurses from Hotel Dieu Hospital, Diane Pillon and Linda Pillon reassured us that she was recovering remarkably well.

We were honoured to have with us Linda Cash, M.D. the well-known neurologist who came from New York to be with her former classmates after twenty-five years.

Even Anna Palumbo, a novelist who has written five best sellers, found time to renew old acquaintances.

I must not forget Cecile Bezaire who was also unable to be there. But her lay missionary work in Basutoland is keeping her quite busy and very happy.

Class reunions and old school memories can bring such joy. I would not have missed it for anything. I must be going for the children are crying.

For now,
Angela

Sweet girl graduates!

The happy gang!

Last Will and Testament

Diane P. bequeaths her messy desk to next year's frumpies.

Linda C. leaves her apple cores in Sr. Francis' waste basket.

Sadie leaves her "no parking" sign.

Marie B. donates her reclining position on the mountain to next year's skiers.

Marguerite hands over the piano to next year's "chopstickers".

Barb leaves her Monday morning smile to any Monday mourners.

John B. gives his quick quips and wit to Sr. Patrick to remember.

Marie D. leaves her homework pad un-written in.

Cecile bequeaths her comb to next year's beautician.

Cecilia wills her short stature to the tallest girl in Gr. 11.

David leaves his ruler beside the radiator to next year's code sender.

Agnes leaves her gym shorts everywhere.

Angela leaves her corner beside the office reluctantly.

Tom wills the financial aspect of the yearbook to anyone with patience.

Anna leaves all her poems to Barb Gibb.

Linda P. leaves slowly and lastly but not leastly.

John S. leaves his position on the team for Marvin to uphold.

Diane S. leaves her position in front of the mirror to Linda Owen.

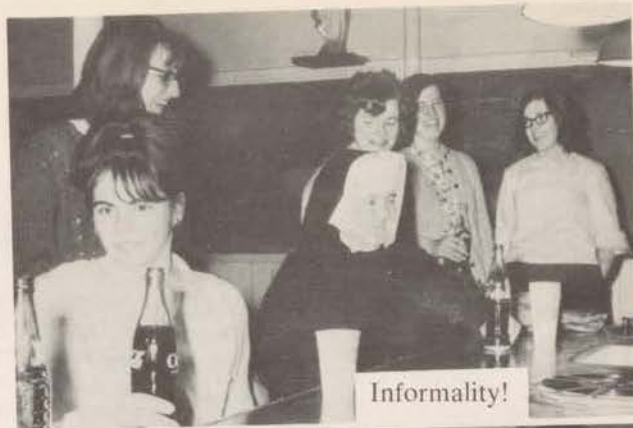

Donna leaves behind her chocolate bar wrappers in everyone's pockets.

Jim bequeaths his Physics notes to Sr. Patrick for reference.

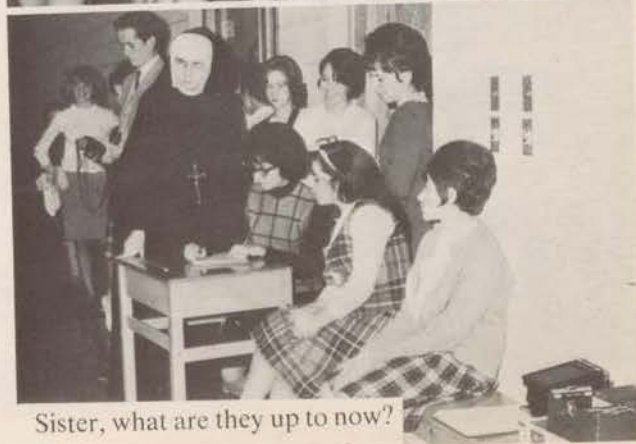

Dan I. leaves his mild manners to next year's rioters.

Doug just wants to leave.

—Marie Bondy

"Anything you can do I can do better"

Get that camera outta here!

I didn't say a word! aurse the bell froze?

God Bless you!

HOW CAN WE FORGET

The day Sadie had to go back to ring the cow bell because the bell froze?

Linda C.'s desperate attempts to succeed in gymnastics?

The day Sr. Patrick received mysterious messages from the radiator?

Our 'stunning' new basketball uniforms?

When Anna started analyzing everyone's handwriting?

The day Marie D. couldn't get out of her skirt to change for P.T.?

When Sr. Patrick made her speedy exit during firedrill, coming out last?

How Donna's brilliant French translation was discovered?

When Dee Dee's attempt to read a romantic novel behind her history book was foiled?

The grade XII boys' interpretation of 'A Man for All Seasons'—eh John B.?

The day Linda P. danced to school in her slippers?

The day John B. and Dan I. broad jumped at the same time? . . . (CRASH)

When Diane P. decided to fall down the stairs instead of walking?

The day Barb forgot to wear her slip?

The time Sr. Adeline threw her clapper at Sr. Rose?

When an educated mouse dropped in to the girls' P.T. class?

How bare our neighbour's apple tree was after the girls' P.T.?

The Christmas present Minou the cat received from the McGregor lasses?

When we saw the movies 'The Sound of Music' and 'Becket'?

When Dan G.'s desk mysteriously toppled—eh Tom?

The times Marguerite led us in song during Religion?

The boys' first and last attempt at gymnastics?

The hard fought basketball games?

Future Eiensteins!

"Gotta tiger in my arms"

Good bye, good luck,

Sr. Francis running back and forth to change the thermostat?

The time Doug lost his front wheel while driving?

The noon-hour Angela wore a bib?

When Dan G. was accused of having a girl's slip in his possession?

The time Linda P. asked Sr. Ernest where the jungles were in Africa?

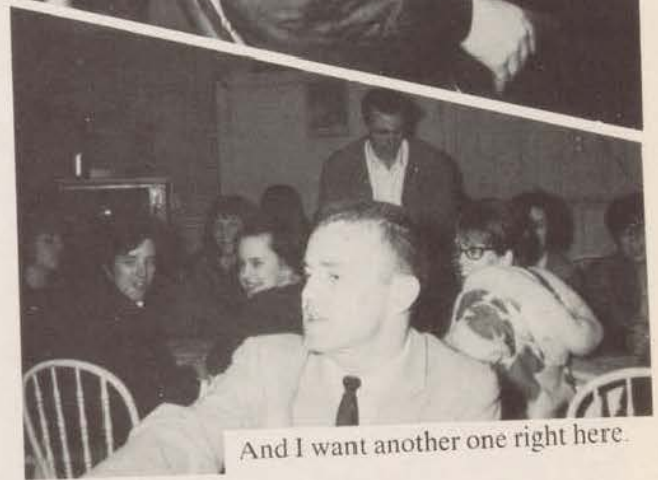

When Mr. Bedel informed Doug that he was a complete physical wreck?

When Dan G. filled Dave's pencil case with water?

The time Linda P. locked herself in the girls' lavatory?

The day the St. Rose bell tolled again?

John S.'s winning free-shots in the E.C.S.S.A.?

And I want another one right here.

Can You Imagine?

Sadie without her bell?

Angela failing French?

John B. as play-boy or '70?

Marie B. not helping Linda C.?

Cecilia in a pixie haircut?

Agnes not discussing her problems with Donna?

Barb living on a chicken farm?

Jim sitting up straight?

Anna without friends?

Donna not watching the squirrels in the trees?

Diane S. wearing size 18?

Marie D. unfriendly to Linda P.?

John S. teaching English?

Diane P. causing a riot?

Doug walking to school?

Linda P. the first one back from P.T.

Marguerite not playing the piano?

Dan I. talkative?

Tom not tapping his pencil or cracking his knuckles?

Dave walking from St. Rose to the gym?

Dan G. not playing basketball?

Cecile with the same hair-do all day?

Linda C. enjoying gymnastics?

Sister Francis without Minou?

Sister Patrick teaching French?
